

Welcome To Ivy Ridge at Ballantyne!

Ballantyne Commons Townhome Association is comprised of the three Villages of Charleston Place: The Battery, Sterling Heights, and Ivy Ridge.

This unique community in the heart of Ballantyne and in walking distance of Ballantyne Village, where you can enjoy shopping, dining, coffee shops and movies, is comprised of some 258 townhomes, built by Pulte Homes between 2001 and 2004. Community amenities include a clubhouse and pool.

Just inside the trademark four corner monuments of Ballantyne, Ivy Ridge boasts a location many can only envy. Ivy Ridge at Ballantyne is comprised of 122 all-brick townhomes with attached garages built between 2002 and 2004. Fifty homes in Ivy Ridge include basements and offer beautiful views of Ballantyne from large decks off the main floor.

Located just south of Charlotte's I-485, Ballantyne is one of Charlotte's largest, master planned communities of its kind. The Ballantyne area is a complete community in itself, Shopping, medical facilities, theatres, restaurants, grocers, golf courses are all within walking distance of Ivy Ridge at Ballantyne. And if you work in Ballantyne Corporate Park, your commute is just minutes long!

Ballantyne is a short commute to uptown Charlotte, South Park, Matthews and Charlotte's Douglas Airport. Ballantyne residents also enjoy some of south Charlotte's top public schools.